Tab Hunter, The Murphy Sisters

==========78 RPMS

Sadly, there's only one Loretta Lynn 78 on file, a test-pressing for a minor 1970's single. RIP, diva.

==========78 SPOTLIGHT ARTISTS
The Murphy Sisters

1940s vocal group consisting of sisters Margie, Dottie, and Muriel Murphy. Their first professional engagement was with Carl Hoff's big band, when they were only 16, 19, and 21. They soon scored their first hits with "B-I-By" and "You're A Sap, Mr. Jap" (Dec. 1941). In Jan. 1943, they joined Vaughn Monroe's orchestra. In the late 1940s, they recorded under their own name for Apollo Records (2).(info from Wikipedia)

House Full Of Daughters [Omnibus]

Juliet Nicolson's memoir of seven generations of women, including her grandmother Vita Sackville West.

Read by Juliet Stevenson.

Juliet Stevenson reads Juliet Nicolson’s journey through seven generations of women, including her Flamenco dancing great-great-grandmother, Pepita, her grandmother Vita Sackville-West and her mother Philippa - all of whom have shaped and formed, in extraordinary ways, exactly who she has become today.

"Homophobia and misogyny are ingrained in hip-hop. But a new generation of women and queer artists are determined to challenge the status quo.

Cakes Da Killa is an openly gay rapper who has been recording for more than a decade. In this two-part series he talks to female stars like number one artist Latto, and queer rappers like Ripparachie to find out how far they have come, the issues they still face and where they are going next."

The Chill Room stands outside all other media. It will never be popular. The only agenda is to CHILL YOU OUT. This one is guided by the idea of Muse. It is a beautiful tapestry of life in audio. It contains multitudes. It has themes to connect it all together. You'll have a giggle, a furrowed brow and a chill. Feels kind of tucked away. For Emily Browning.
